

Kansas Center for Entrepreneurship

Who Are We?

We are a statewide network of non-profit business-building resources that help entrepreneurs and small business owners startup and grow successful businesses

What We Do?

- We are growing an entrepreneurial environment by cultivating resources to start and grow small businesses.
- Serve as a central portal to help connect entrepreneurs with public sector business-building organizations
- Increase availability of gap funding
- Assist regional and community organizations in providing funding and education for entrepreneurs

Who Are Resource Partners?

Examples:

- KSBDC
- SCORE
- Women's Business Center
- Kansas Department of Commerce
- Micro-loan lenders
- Chambers of Commerce
- Economic development agencies
- Federal agencies (SBA, USDA)
- Kansas Main Street organizations
- Certified development companies (CDCs)
